See more pictures and info on my blog! :) (click on the word “blog” for the hyperlink, the link is hard to see here.) I made this dress after seeing a Fendi dress in pictures on a blog. I fell in love with the dress and had to try and make one for myself. I made a base dress with a zipper and cinched waist and then sewed the flowers onto it. It took a VERY long time, but it was totally worth it in the end. :) www.starsforstreetlights.blogspot.com

Materials

I used a bunch of materials I found on the clearance rack.

Step 1 — Here is my tutorial at Cut+Keep (I did not want to write it twice) :)
